

EXQUISITE STYLES

Are Predominating Characteristics of the Array of Summer Ready-to-Wear Dresses We Are Now Displaying

We have taken particular care this season to assemble Dresses that will appeal to women of taste and discrimination—garments of such rich fabrics; so beautifully tailored and finished that every woman who wears them will be delighted. Come in to-day and look even if you do not buy now.

Chiffon Dresses

We are showing a very handsome line of Chiffon Dresses, in a good display of colors to choose from, nearly all shades; special at

10.95 and 12.50

Messaline Dresses

are very popular this season; you can find a good display of colors, such as wisteria, navy, peach, toupe, black and white. Prices from

8.87 to 16.50

Silk Poplins

We are showing an exceptional value in a Silk Poplin Dress. Great value. Special, each, at 15.00

White Muslin Dresses

We are showing an exceptional fine line of both plain and fancy models. Prices, each from

5.00 to 15.00

Suits

Extra values in Odd Suits and Coats that we cannot duplicate, to close at special prices.

Ladies' Parasols now in.

The Homer Fitts Company

DO YOU WANT A GOOD SPONGE?

We mean one that will not tear to pieces, with little use, but will outlast several of the cheaper grades of the same size. It is quality in a Sponge that counts.

We have a fine lot of Florida Sheep Wool Sponges, at reasonable prices, bleached for general use, and bleached for toilet use.

We also have cheaper grades, but always advise our customers that the best is the cheapest for them to buy.

D. F. DAVIS, 'The Druggist'

262 North Main Street.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Nemo corsets at Abbott's. Warner's Rust Proof corsets at Knight's. Don't forget the auction sale to-night at 7 of the bankrupt stock of furniture. Bolster block, where you can buy at your own price. M. Gotler.

TALK OF THE TOWN

"Rip Van Winkle," a two-reel feature. Where? At the Dreamland, of course. The St. Anselmus college baseball team, which played in the city Saturday, left this morning for Hanover, N. H., where they will face the Dartmouth freshmen this afternoon.

More Style and Better Quality at Moderate Prices

That's the advantage in your favor when you make a selection from our entirely superior lines of spring clothes.

Shuman and Adler-Rochester

Pay the price you can comfortably afford, and your purchase will please you with the satisfaction that this store gives just a little more value for the money than may seem necessary.

Frank McWhorter Co.

TALK OF THE TOWN

See those English gaberdien rain coats at Abbott's. By express to-day, new Wearwell dresses, ladies and misses' Paris Shirtwaist House.

William Mitchell of Cottage street is employed as a barber in the Ross shop on Depot square.

Mrs. F. E. Perkins of Ashton, N. Y., arrived in the city last night for a ten days' visit with relatives.

Antonio Rossi of North Main street left last night for Montreal, P. Q., where he will spend several days with friends.

Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Soules of St. Albans were guests over the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Randall of 5 Averill street.

Miss Emily Gebhardt returned this forenoon to her home in Burlington, after spending a few days with friends on North Main street.

Carlos Zitter, who has been spending several days in the home of Alex. Corey of Prospect street, left this morning for his home in Fort Kent, Me.

L. H. Goodhall returned this morning to his home in South Woodbury, after spending a few days at the home of A. M. Morrison of Batchelder knob.

Mrs. Edward Morin, who has been visiting friends in South Barre for a few days, was a visitor in the city to-day, while on her way home to Milton.

Friends in Barre of John King of Grantville, who has been seriously ill for ten days, will be interested to learn that his condition is somewhat improved.

Miss Marjorie Brown of Montreal, P. Q., arrived in the city last evening for a two-weeks' visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. T. E. Brown, of Cottage street.

Miss Sadie Wilson, who has been visiting at the home of her parents on Ayer street, returned to-day to Barre, where she is engaged as a teacher in the public schools.

William T. Maiden and James Donahoe, who passed the week-end at their homes in Barre, returned last night to Burlington to resume their studies at the University of Vermont.

Jasper Haggitt, who has been employed in Barre and Williamstown for the past three months, left last night for his home in West Stewartstown, N. H., to spend the summer.

J. B. Adams of Randolph, an agent for the D. A. Perry Real Estate Co., Harry Titus of Woodsville, N. H., and C. E. Goodwin of Chester were among the business visitors in the city to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Dasher of Washington were visitors in the city last night while on their way home from Holyoke, Mass., where they were called Friday by the death of a relative of the former.

There will be a rehearsal of the Heddington Methodist male chorus on Wednesday evening at 7:30 at the home of W. J. Oliver of Upland avenue. A full attendance is requested to be present at the rehearsal.

Harry Dale, who has been spending the past week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dale of Green street, returned last night to Boston.

Mr. Dale came to the city to recuperate from a minor operation.

Miss Mamie Hagan, a student at Goddard seminary, was stricken seriously ill with appendicitis Saturday and had to be taken to her home in East Barre. Afterwards her condition was reported to be somewhat improved.

Joseph Denney of Washington street began a two weeks' vacation from his duties in the F. D. Ladd Co. store Saturday.

With Mrs. Denney and children, he went yesterday to their former home in Northfield for an extended visit.

The condition of Mrs. Peter Corey of Prospect street, who underwent an operation at the Heaton hospital in Montpelier this forenoon, is reported to be as comfortable as could be expected.

Mrs. Corey entered the hospital last Friday.

Irving L. Potter of Boston, a former instructor at Goddard seminary, who has been passing a few days with friends in the city, left this morning for Vergennes, where he will give a lecture this evening. Mr. Potter will go from Vergennes to Boston.

The famous marvelous talking pictures, which are to be shown at the opera house to-night and Tuesday night are considered the greatest novelty of the present age. It has taken years of hard labor and study on the part of the inventor to perfect this wonderful invention.

John Johnson, on Saturday completed a period of service at the C. W. Averill hardware company that extended over several years. Mr. Johnson will soon open to the public a plumbing establishment conducted by himself. He is considered one of the most efficient plumbers and tin-smiths in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Wiley and son, Chauncey, Jr., who have been spending several days in Boston, returned to Barre to-day. While absent, Mr. Wiley, as one of the grand officers of the state lodge, Knights of Pythias, attended the annual convention of Massachusetts Pythians held in Boston Wednesday and Thursday.

The remains of Paul Bianchi, a former resident of Barre, whose death occurred at his home in Woodstock Friday morning, will reach the city this afternoon at 4:40 o'clock, accompanied by friends and relatives of the deceased. The funeral will be held as soon as the body arrives and the remains will be taken to Hope cemetery for interment.

Miss Grace E. Walker, who has been visiting at the home of Mrs. Agnes Walker of Grant avenue for the past month, went this morning to Vergennes, where she will be the guest of Principal James E. Walker of the Vergennes high school. Later she will return to her home in Westmount, Montreal, P. Q. She was accompanied to Vergennes by Miss Mary A. Walker, who will visit her brother for a few days.

Frank E. Merrill, who has been passing a few days with friends in the city, left this morning on an extended business trip through northern Maine. Since relinquishing his duties as day clerk at the hotel Otis several months ago, Mr. Merrill has been engaged as a traveling salesman for the Mascoma Manufacturing Co., of Canaan, N. H. His territory embraces northern Maine, central Vermont and the east section of New Hampshire.

The management of baseball at Goddard seminary notified St. Johnsbury academy Saturday noon that it would be needless to take the trip and that the game would be postponed until some time this week, owing to the cold weather. The seminary team had made arrangements to travel to St. Johnsbury by automobile and towards noon they saw that the chances for playing the game were poor. The game will be played there either Thursday or Friday.

Funerals of Paul Bianchi. Gli amici che vogliono accompagnare la salma di Paul Bianchi al Cimitero white sarati alle 4 funerali cominceranno alla Stazione alle ore 4:40 pm di oggi. Lunedi.

TOO LATE TO BE CLASSIFIED

WANTED—A kitchen girl at the Baltimore Lunch Room.

LOST—Between Morrisville, Vt., and Barre, an Eagle order book, with receipts. Finder please send to box No. 27, Morrisville, Vt. Mr. James Frattini.

WANTED—Would take in stock for pasture on my home farm. Yearling cattle at $1.50 per season, and 2-year-olds and cows at $2.50. Yearling colts at $1.50 and 2-year-olds and horses at $4.00. Good fences, well watered and good pasture. Apply to J. J. Dasher, Washington, Vt.

LOST—A trunk from automobile somewhere in the city. Will finder please return to Palace Garage, North Main street?

TALK OF THE TOWN

Black Cat silk footed hose at Abbott's.

The latest New York millinery at Mrs. Nelson-Church's, over Barre Times office. By express to-day, ladies and misses' street dresses, Paris Shirtwaist House.

See the new street dresses in Bedford well and new Ottoman cloths. Paris Shirtwaist House.

Mrs. W. S. Duba, who has been visiting friends in the city for a few days, returned this morning to Windsor, where she has been making an extended stay with relatives. Early next week she will leave for her home in Gettysburg, Pa.

The following item taken from a Boston Sunday paper of yesterday's issue may be of interest to local people: "Portland, Me., May 10.—Miss Evelyn M. Dodge has brought suit against George E. Letourneau, proprietor of a bakery, to recover $1,500 for kissing her against her will. She claims that he came up from behind her in the cellar of the bakery, threw his arms about her and kissed her."

Yesterday was "mother's day" at the Heddington Methodist church and a large attendance congregated at all the services held during the day. At Sunday school a specially arranged program was given by the members. All the mothers present were presented with a white carnation. Rev. G. S. Nutter of Boston, who is filling the pulpit during the absence of Rev. E. F. Newell, pastor, delivered a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

Several administrative changes at the Montpelier and Wells River freight depot went into effect this morning. Harold Ball, who has been acting as cashier for the past few months, was transferred to Montpelier, where he will be cashier at the M. & W. freight station. John Marrion, who has been yard clerk for the past year, assumed the duties left by Cashier Ball. Harry W. Averill began his duties as official yard clerk.

The tenth annual meeting of the Montpelier district of the woman's auxiliary to the diocese of Vermont will be held at the Church of the Good Shepherd Thursday, May 15. Delegates to the meeting will be entertained by local members of the auxiliary and an interesting program of the day's doings has been prepared. Rt. Rev. William Farrar Weeks, the bishop coadjutor, will be present and among the other speakers will be the president of the diocesan organization and the head of the district auxiliary. The meeting will open with a celebration of the holy communion in the church at 9:45 o'clock.

The auto fire-truck from station one answered a hurry call Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, when sparks from a burning chimney communicated with the roof of Mrs. Alex. Bruce's house at 59 Brooklyn street. Occupants of the house were the first to notice the condition of the chimney, and before they had time effectively to combat the blaze within, shooting sparks had ignited shingles in several spots on the roof. The fire station was notified by telephone. A number of the regulars who accompanied the car were obliged to scale the roof with chemical streams before the fire could be subdued. The damage will not reach a large figure and Mrs. Bruce's loss is covered by insurance.

BARRE OPERA HOUSE

Monday and Tuesday, May 12 and 13

First Time Outside the Big Cities

The Marvelous Talking Pictures

PRESENTING

RAYMOND HITCHCOCK

MOLLY GERUE

BESSIE WYNNE

and Other Features

PERFECT SYNCHRONIZING AND HARMONY—VAUDEVILLE FEATURES ADDED, MAKING A 2-HOUR SHOW

Prices—25c, 35c, and a few at 50c. Sale Opens Friday, May 9.

BARRE OPERA HOUSE

FOX & EATON, Lessees, JOHN E. HOBAN, Resident Mgr.

Friday, May 16

10TH SEASON

Big Boston Theatre Production of "The Best New England Story Ever Written"

"It is as sweetly natural as the breath of the fields."—Philadelphia Record.

QUINCY ADAMS SAWYER

AND

Mason's Corner Folks.

Large and Excellent Company

"One great big laugh from beginning to end, and the sweetest love story ever told."

Prices—25c, 35c, 50c, 75c. Seat sale at Kendrick's Wednesday morning.

New Summer Wear

BELLE WAISTS—Summer styles, refined and dainty creations of Laces, Embroideries and Fine Muslins, made in the usual Belle way, $1.00 to $6.00 each.

HOSIERY—Complete assortment of best wearing qualities, fine cotton, silk lisle, and silk, 10c to $1.00 per pair.

PARASOLS—New this season; every combination and color, 25c to $6.00 each.

GLOVES—Long Silk, White, Black and Tan, and Pongee, 50c and 75c, double tips.

SUITS—Best $15.00 value in the city.

LET US SHOW YOU—YOU WILL FIND IT PAYS TO TRADE HERE

HENRY W. KNIGHT, Barre, Vt.

Successor to Veale & Knight

PAVILION THEATRE

Special To-day

Rehlander's Troupe of Eight Trained Pigs

A big novelty act.

John Barrett

Singing and Piano.

3000 FEET OF FEATURE PICTURES

MRS. BEN H. TASSIE, Pianist

ADMISSION 10 CENTS

Money Talks

And very little money will talk us into giving you a suit of clothes for less money than you have been accustomed to pay.

Make us prove it! Come in and slip on a suit. The fit and the fabric will please you, and we'll see that the price pleases you.

$10 to $22

Straw Hats, Shoes, Oxford. All new.

F. E. CUTTS & CO.

Telephone 344-W

Pumps and Sandals For the Children

We have a complete line of surprising values in White Canvas, Gun Metal, Patent Leather and Russia Cal.

SEE OUR WINDOW

The Tilden Shoe Co.

Aldrich Building

Barre, Vermont

ADVERTISE IN THE BARRE DAILY TIMES

Croquet Sets!

We have just received a fine line of Croquet Sets. Prices, $1.00 to $3.00. Come in and see them.

C. W. AVERILL & CO.

81-83 No. Main St.

Tel. 439-W

Barre, Vt.